A NEWSLETTER FOR JAVITS CENTER CUSTOMERS

Restaurants at Hudson Yards

March 2018

The unprecedented neighborhood at Hudson Yards is quickly taking shape, generating excitement across New York City and beyond -- including many of our event managers and exhibitors. One of the most anticipated features of the historic development will be the opening of more than 100 restaurants – all across the street from the Javits Center and providing a wonderful new experience for millions of our customers.

Leading this experience will be The Shops at Hudson Yards, an eye-pleasing, seven-story space with a number of food choices approved, in part, by Per Se chef Thomas Keller. Restaurant guru David Chang will inhabit 5,000 square feet at The Shops among other big names sure to please every visitor's taste and style.

Eater.com recently provided a breakdown of the culinary highlights at Hudson Yards – please visit their piece here for more details on all of the restaurants and food halls to come.
