October 2015 Event Schedule

October 2015

Any month is a busy month at the Javits Center, but October brings some of our most popular events. We are hosting thousands of education-focused students, comic book-crazed fans, fashion-focused trend-seekers, photographers and some of the world's most sought-after jewelry! We are proud to have business executives looking for the latest competitive edge and the world's best marathon runners looking for their own edge on the pavement! At the end of the month, thousands of audio professionals and digital content creators also will visit to learn about the future of their industries and new innovations to help them succeed. See you soon!
